MANSFIELD CUT-UPS

TRIED TO RING CHURCH BELL

Pitched on Local Officers Who Were
Hired to Stop the Annual Practice.

Constable Thomas J. Killourey, who is also employed as train announcer at the local railrond station and Detentive A. F. Roswell underwent an exciting and rather unpleasant experience in the early hours of Independence Day. The two officers were hired by O. A. Perry of Mansfield Center to put a stop to depredations which although not particularly destructive excited displeasure on the part of the more peaceable and lawable of the head with the times of the chairmen, Mr. and been the habit of some of the young men and boys in Mansfield to ring the church bell in spite of repeated warnings from the authorities to discontinue the practice. Which accounts for the hiring of the officers mentioned to preserve order.

Mansfield was depicted in tableaux readings and music to a crowded house. The scenes which were real pictures, delt with the times of the Indiang, Colonial and Revolutionary days. The costuming and scenery were very beautiful and the announcements by the chorus rendering national airs was also very effective. In this Mansfield was assisted by E. F. Cross, a former resident and Mrs. and Miss Beebe of Willimantic, Credit is especially due the chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Perry whose senerosity and work assured the success of the entire affair. The lee cream was place furnished by Mr. Perry as a donation to the Library and to Mrs. Perry as a donation to the Library and to Mrs. Perry as a donation to the Library and to Mrs. Perry as a donation to the Library and to Mrs. Perry much of the success of the beautifully set tableaux is due.

The affair was under the auspices of the Mansfield Library, an institution which without definite support of some time by various committees, service to the town, and retted that institution which without definite support of some time by various committees, service by the Library was especially appreciated.

The most interesting deptive in the timest of several housand read Church
